Glades farmers say "No" to NAFTA

By Brenda Bunting
SUN Editor

More than 500 agricultural employees showed up at South Bay Growers Sept. 3 to protest the proposed North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA). In keeping with the Labor Day holiday weekend, the organizers were hoping to focus attention on the devastating loss of jobs that NAFTA reportedly will cause in the area, which is one of the top citrus, vegetable and sugarcane growing areas in the country.

People from the farming communities of South Bay, Clewiston, Belle Glade and Pahokee are expected to be the hardest hit economically if the trade agreement is approved.

"We are Americans worried about our jobs," said South Bay Commissioner Willie Marshall. "We're not going to lose another job. We're gonna fight this."

Mildred Clark Brown, a foreman for South Bay Growers, said she has been a migrant worker for 39 years. "How can I find another job if I lose this one? I'm too old for this."

Pahokee's Mayor Ramon Horta told the crowd that NAFTA wasn't going to help the Glades. "It's gonna drown us. We've got to let the officials in Washington know we oppose this trade agreement," he said.

Farming is a $6 billion industry in Florida with sugarcane alone contributing over $1.5 billion.

Three incumbents are challenged for their seats

By Brenda Bunting
SUN Editor

Tuesday's city commission race pits three veteran politicians against three newcomers to politics.

Current Mayor Bill Bailey, 61, challenged by local businessman Rodney "Clay" Connell.

Mr. Bailey is a real estate agent and works for the county tax collector. He was on the commission from 1963 to 1975 and then served as a county commissioner from 1976 to 1980. He returned to city government in 1989.

He feels his expertise will be needed by the city in the near future. The commissioners have some heavy decisions to make soon having to do with sewer improvements.

Mr. Bailey and his wife, Sue, have three grown children. Mrs. Bailey works as the aide to County Commissioner Ken Foster.

Rodney Clay Connell, 31, of 17 N.E. Avenue E, is challenging Bill Bailey for Seat D. Connell is co-manager of the local Badcock store and co-owner of Connell Jewelers.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, have a two year old son, Taylor Edward. Mrs. Connell is a pediatric supervisor at Glades General Hospital.

Mr. Connell said he wants a seat on the commission because he feels the city needs to get back to basic spending, "police, fire, public works, which includes roads," and stop spending money on luxuries.

Mr. Connell said he has lived in Belle Glade all his life and has a long-term interest in the city.

Steve Weeks, who is an owner of Seminole Supply in Belle Glade, is running for his third consecutive term. He and his wife, Mary, have three children.

Mr. Weeks said he is running for office again because "I truly love doing this. I enjoy working with the city and serving its citizens."

Mrs. Gilbert, 32, of 1633 N.E. Avenue I, is challenging Weeks for his seat. She is divorced

Hair Design and also works at the Palm Beach County Jail.

She said she is running for city commissioner because she sees a great need for improvement in the city.

"We need some workable form of recreation for our young people. There are grants that are available that will supply the personnel to run a recreation center. We have the facilities here, if only they were utilized," she said.

Incumbent Crate "Happy" Tucker is running for Seat E against Johnny W. Johnson, 52. Mr. Tucker is running for his fourth term on the commission. He was first elected in 1987 and served as mayor in 1991.

He and his wife, Alicia, have three children. He is the Sugar Cane Division Manager for Lykes Bros. Inc.

Asked why he is running again for office, Mr. Tucker said "I really feel there are still some things I'd like to see done and I'd like to continue to be a part of it."

Johnny Johnson and his wife, Janie, have six grown children. They live at 1411 S.W. Avenue E. Mr. Johnson is the Postmaster for the Belle Glade Postal Service. This is his second attempt to unseat Mr. Tucker. He ran against him in 1988.

"I've been a community activist most of my life," said Mr. Johnson. "I'm running because I want to offer sound fiscal responsibility."

Mr. Johnson has been the postmaster since 1989. Before that, he was the supervisor for several years. He is also the pastor of the inspirational Church of God in South Bay.

Happy Tucker

The election is scheduled for September 14. The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Big Water Festival draws small but diverse crowd

Organizers of the second annual Big Water Festival promised some good ole Southern Hospitality for Saturday's event. Festival goers said the promise was delivered.

Anita Brunson, president of Canal Point Renewal, the sponsoring organization, said Saturday's event was a time for neighbors to visit and also meet with politicians.

The politicians were out in force at the event. Senator Mark Foley addressed the crowd and urged them to contact their representatives and voice their displeasure with the NAFTA agreement. County Commissioner Ken Foster, who grew up in the Glades, said it was always good to come back to the area to visit and renew ties.

Also on hand was Clerk of the Circuit Court Dorothy Wilken, House Representative Addie Green, Property Appraiser Gary Nikolits, Palm Beach County Tax Collector John Clark, Belle Glade's Mayor or Bill Bailey, Pahokee's Mayor

Ramon Horta and South Bay Vice Mayor Basil Anderson.

"It was a good opportunity for people to speak to their representatives," said Ms. Brunson. "Every time we can get them out here we have an opportunity to get to know them better and let them know our needs," she said.

Two awards were given at the ceremonies, one to Vicki E. Silver, senior planner of the Palm Beach County Planning, Zoning, and Building Department for helping organize the Canal Point Renewal committee and for her hard work and dedication to the community.

She provided the committee with technical services, and found several funding sources for C.R.P.'s projects.

The Canal Point Volunteer Fire Department was also presented an award for "their continued hard work and dedication to the community."

Chartered in 1968, the department has 16 volunteers, all trained as fire fighters, to respond to emergencies.

Cunningham, (Canal Point's elementary school is named after her) is shown taking care of her two great-grandchildren at Saturday's Big Water Festival. The child on the left is Kathleen Grace Johnson, 3, with baby brother Graham Allan Johnson, 9 months. They are the children of Ann and Carl Johnson of Canal Point. The Big Water Festival attracted people from around the lake for a day of fun, fellowship and good food.

Light needs fixed

I'd like to know why there isn't a stop light on Avenue E? I feel that if it were in white town they would hurry up and fix it.

It's been three weeks, maybe four since there's been a light there and it's very dangerous there on Martin Luther King Blvd.

I'd just like to know why there isn't one there. Could it be that it's in black town and it's just not a priority?

I'm concerned. Thank you.

Editor's note: The purchasing department for the City of Belle Glade has reported this outage to Florida Power and Light Company. FPL is handling the repair of this red light, which has been removed temporarily.

We can only urge drivers to be cautious at this intersection until the light is fixed.

Letter to the editor

Dear Editor:

The Glades has large problems. Is any one issue greater than any other? Perhaps I am prejudiced in thinking that ILLITERACY is such a bugbear that many other problems would be lessened if the local illiteracy rate could be reduced from the present forty percent.

Those people being supported by tax dollars are often in need of help to lift them out of illiteracy.

The cost of illiteracy is borne by both the illiterate and the literate. For example the illiteracy rate in correctional facilities is well above 50%.

For the past three years the Palm Beach County Library and the Federal Government placed VISTA volunteers in the Glades. These VISTA volunteers are here to establish a tutoring service to be operated by local citizens.

The response has been very poor. So few seem willing to give of themselves in the tutoring of others.

Those wishing reading help, have stepped forward. Those able to tutor stayed back.

VISTA will train volunteer tutors and supply all needed material.

Will The Sun shed some of its light on this problem? Patience is the primary qualification for a tutor.

Sincerely,

Dean Beck,
VISTA volunteer
Belle Glade

Don't tie one on - dress down for these hot Florida days

The dog days of August and September all over the Sun Belt states are hot and are getting hotter. One public official has decided to do something about that for the public good. Jack Latona, attorney in private practice and a city commissioner for Fort Lauderdale, has declared war on discomfort and overdrressing.

He is convinced that those who live in sub-tropical climates like Florida should dress appropriately for their environment and not to artificial standards of northern cities. Dressing for success, according to Latona, should mean dressing in tune with the natural world.

Latona, in a speech to the Greater Fort Lauderdale Chamber of Commerce, took off his jacket, tie, business shirt and trousers to reveal tee shirt and shorts to dramatize his message.

Friday is already a dress down day in many offices and human resource people have the environment, not against it. When it is hot, we shouldn't be over air conditioning our offices, our cars and our homes. We need to walk, use public transportation and enjoy the outdoors the way it was meant to be enjoyed," he said.

He firmly believes in discarding ties and throwing away pantyhose and other encumbrances that prevent the body from breathing. This message has been carried to the public by the media with stories in the Fort Lauderdale Sun-Sentinel, the Miami Herald, CNN and the Washington Times.

The other day he was interviewed on a call-in radio show, but not in the Sun Belt. Malcolm Elliott called from Sydney, Australia, commenting that the Outback agrees with Latona's philosophy. During and long transcontinental telephone interview, they agreed to Dress Light.

Latona punctuates his mission with buttons showing a tie and an international negative sign and the words, "Dress Light!" The program is gathering momentum throughout corporate communities, governmental groups and other organizations.

Friday is already a dress down day in many offices and human resource people have recognized the positive feelings of staff and management towards such programs.

The Miami Herald, a Florida newspaper, is holding a contest for the design and naming of business wear that can be worn in the tropics.

Cuba and Latin America have the Guyabana, which is cool but is worn mostly by the older generation. The wildly flowered sport shirt sported by Harry Truman during his vacation days in Florida is still worn but is not quite conservative enough for most corporate tastes, unless one is drinking margaritas and listening to Jimmy Buffet songs in the Florida Keys or on South Beach.

Latona wants a new dress code that starts with stripping off uncomfortable and traditional trappings to reflect the environmental needs of men and women today. How he succeeds will be carefully watched and monitored by a lot of interested and involved parties... from clothing manufacturers and retailers to the corporate culture trendsetters. Watch out, John Malloy... armor became obsolete when jousting went out with chivalry. Dressing for success now means inventing our dress all over again, Fort Lauderdale style.

Melaleuca removal begins on Lake Okeechobee

Some of the largest, most mature forests of melaleuca trees in south Florida can be found around the marshy banks and western littoral zone of Lake Okeechobee. Efforts to remove this invasive non-native tree have begun by the South Florida Water Management District. Left unchecked, melaleuca can take over and form a dense monoculture; thus upsetting the balance of native plant and animal species.

The eradication project is made possible by a $200,000 contract for melaleuca control approved by the District Governing Board in July. The project involves cutting through the tree and spraying the remaining stump with herbicide. A few of the trees are allowed to stand to warn boaters away from protruding stumps.

It is estimated that the melaleuca have established a foothold in approximately 12,000 acres around the lake.

The District hopes to increase funding for its removal efforts with matching funds being provided by the Florida Department of Environmental Protection. The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers has also expressed interest in cost-sharing of the project with the District. The lake project is part of a $1.4 million allocation from the District this year for melaleuca eradication and biocontrol studies.

Originally imported from Australia, melaleuca has no native enemies in Florida. It has invaded many areas of south Florida, including the Everglades.

As taxes and government spending increases, the Florida Senate has countered the trend, returning millions of dollars to the state general revenue fund.

Senate President Ander Crenshaw announced last week that the Senate had returned $5.3 million dollars to the state's General Revenue Fund. The amount represents just under 20% of the entire Senate budget and reflects savings accomplished under Crenshaw's presidency. According to published reports in the Florida Times-Union, state agencies typically return less than 1% of their budget.

do that is to lead by example," said Crenshaw. "When I moved to the president's office, my first action was to cut my staff in half. No press secretary, nor army of high priced advisors. That set the tone for the entire year."

Governor Chiles' office, which reverted less than 1% of its budget, criticized Crenshaw, saying that he "didn't have much of a program," but Crenshaw pointed out that the $5.3 million better spent on providing direct services to Floridians. "$5.3 million will pay for 230 new prison beds or 215 juvenile detention beds," he said. "It could help keep 625 families together and keep their kids out of foster homes. It could provide 435 drug treatment slots or hire 78 Highway Patrol Troopers." Crenshaw's renowned frugality has extended to the entire state budget process, where during the last session he oversaw the creation of a state budget that included no tax increases, despite Governor Chiles' calls for almost $1 billion in new revenue.

In addition to returning the money, the Senate is requesting no increase in its budget for the coming year. The proposed budget also holds more than $1 million reserve to offset federal cuts in welfare fraud investigations planned by the Clinton Administration.

Crenshaw, a Jacksonville native, is the first Republican ever elected as President of the Florida Senate.

Glades Central pounds Newman in opener

David Ranieri
Staff Reporter

Glades Central sent a message to future opponents in their season opener, that in order to have a chance of defeating them you must contain their explosive ground game.

Glades Central rushed for 325 yards on the ground and had 379 yards in total offense.

Senior Fred Taylor led the way for the Raiders. The 6-foot-1, 212 pound senior ran for 140 yards on 10 carries and scored two touchdowns in a little more than one half of football.

"He's the best running back I have ever coached," said Glades Central head coach Rick Casko.

But the Raider's running game is more than a one man show.

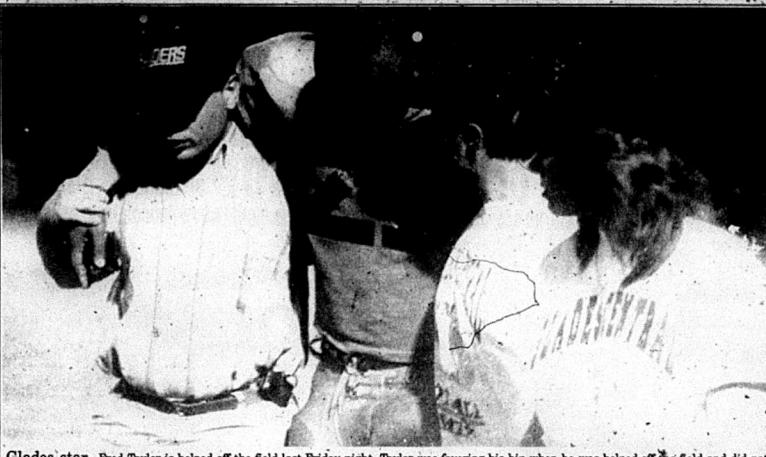

Glades Central boasts many weapons in their backfield.

Senior James Powe rushed for 65 yards on six carries and one touchdown and junior James Jackson ran for 77 yards on four carries.

Taylor wasted no time in showing the estimated crowd of 2,000 why he is considered one of Florida's finest running backs. Taylor scored on a 33-yard touchdown run the first time he touched the ball.

Then he ran in the two-point conversion to give Glades Central a 8-0 lead with 8:52 left in the first quarter.

Cardinal Newman the only team to defeat the Raider's least year would comeback. John Archimede scored on a 4-yard run to make it 8-6. Archimede's run was set up by quarterback Andy Mariani's 33-yard pass to Framayne

Jones.

That would be the only score the Raider's defense would allow all night.

The defensive unit held Newman to 40 yards rushing and 105 yards in total offense. Crusader's quarterback Andy Mariani was sacked four times.

The Raider's defense was led by linebacker Johnny Rutledge with eight tackles and two sacks. Defensive back Antonio Bowie recorded five tackles, defensive linemen James Green had four tackles and senior Howard McGregor had four tackles and two assists.

Running back James Powe scored on a 7-yard run with 9:41 remaining in the second quarter and Taylor ran in the two-point conversion. The Raider's led 16-6 and would never look back.

Taylor scored again on a 29-yard touchdown run with nine seconds remaining in the first half as Glades Central went into the locker room with a 22-6 lead.

Glades Central continued to pound the Crusader defense without mercy.

The Raiders scored on their first possession of the second half. Jasuan Seider connected on a 20-yard touchdown pass to Demal Stanley to give the Raider's a commanding 28-6 lead.

Glades Central's head coach Rick Casko experienced a frightening moment on the next play. Taylor was stopped on the 1-yard line on the two-point conversion try and was injured. Taylor who was favoring his hip walked off the field, but did not return to the game.

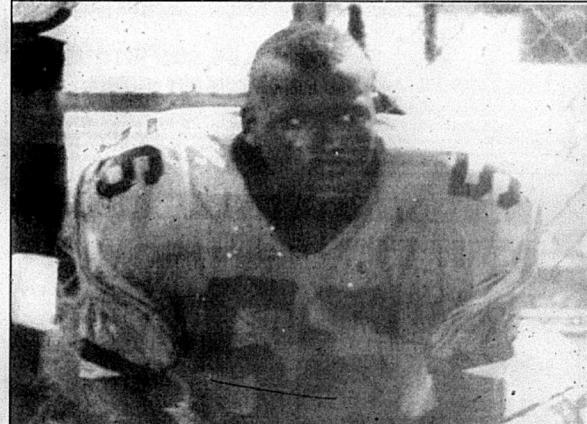

Randy Williams scored on a six-yard touchdown run and Andre Tommie connected on a 17-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Thomas Stinson.

Then Sherrod Moore would convert the two point conversion as the Raider's defeated Cardinal Newman 42-6 at Forest Hill High School's Kettler Field and end Newman's hopes of a repeat performance from last year.

The Raiders spoiled Cardinal Newman's coach Sam Budnyk's bid for his 21st win that would have tied him for No. 7 on the state's all-time list.

Glades Central will play South Fork, Friday night.

Patrick Thomas... watches as his Raider teammates continue to pound Cardinal Newman. The Raiders are the No. 1 ranked Class 3 A team in the state.

Gus Peavy.. drops back to pass against Zion Lutheran. The Crusaders will take on cross town rival Glades Day, Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Whitehead leads Glades
Day to win

The Gators had revenge on their minds last Friday night against John Carroll.

John Carroll defeated Glades Day 20-18 last year.

But what a difference a year makes.

Running back Patrick Whitehead continued to be a force. The 6-foot-1, 205 pound junior running back rushed for 138 yards on 24 carries and three touchdowns all in the first half.

"I owe it all to our offensive line," said Whitehead.

Quarterback Graham Chancey added a 25-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter. Chancey also threw for 47 yards.

The receivers and the line did a great job, said Chancey. "They made my job a lot easier. The last three years we're rebuilding years. We've got a great bunch of guys and we're ready to take it all the way."

The Gator defense held John Carroll to 31 yards rushing and no yards passing in recording their first shutout of the year.

John Carroll sophomore Jarody McDavid was held to 31 yards on 20 carries. McDavid was the major force behind the Rams victory over the Gators last year.

"It was a great game for us," said Glades Day head coach Many Perez. "Our offense scored 33 points and our defense recorded a shutout."

The Gators will take on archrival Christian Day Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Raider faithful... cheer on their Glades Central football team. Rick Casko's team have their sites on a state championship this season.

Raider football players... take a time out during their victory over Cardinal Newman last Friday night. The Raiders avenged their only loss from last season.

Team spirit... the Glades Day JV cheerleaders encourage the Gator fans to root for their team. The JV Gators beat Moore Haven 22-0. The team will play King's Academy, Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

JV Gators crush MH JV Terriers

Heath Norman fired two touchdown passes and Stacey Cox raced 45 yards for a third touchdown as the Gators beat Moore Haven's JV Terriers in last Thursday's Junior Varsity Jamboree held at Glades Day School's Gator Field.

The Gator defense held the Terriers scoreless - and under 100 yards total - for the game.

After a relatively uneventful - and scoreless - first quarter, Jared Davis scored on a 22-yard shot from Norman and Justin Hamilton scored on a Norman pass, both in the second quarter. The game's first score, however, came on a touchback when Ryan Chekley tackled the Terriers' running back behind the goal earlier in the second period.

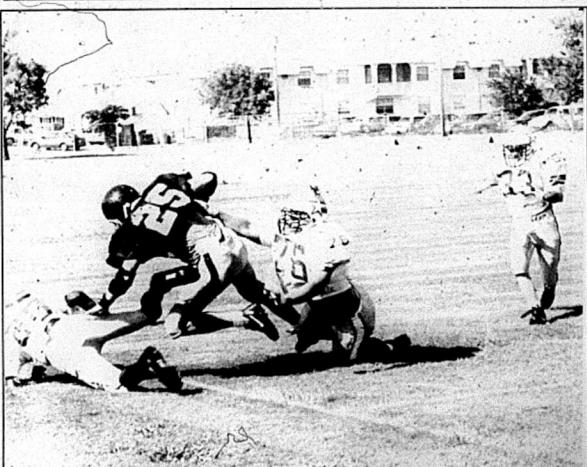

Cox's remarkable 45-yard run highlighted the third quarter for the Gators, and in the fourth quarter, Wesley Bruen went into the end zone on a one-yard run.

Passing:
H. Norman - 2 of 3 for 24 yds
Z. Threlkeld - 1 of 1 for 5 yds

Rushing:

Stacey Cox - 10 - 122
Wesley Bruen - 18 - 85
Heath Norman - 4 - 5
Bobby James - 1 - 1

Leading tacklers:
Thomas Norman - 3, 4 assists
Pablo Sanchez - 3, 5 assists
Ryan Chekley - 3, 4 assists
Caleb Evans - 2, 4 assists

Perez expects strong season from Gators

By Brenda Bunting
SUN Editor

A winning season is in reach for the Gators this year, says Head Coach Mandy Perez.

"I think we have a good team. If we work hard, we'll be successful," he said.

The Glades Day School Gators have 17 returning lettermen with eight returning starters on offense and four on defense.

"We had one kid come into the season with a broken hand, but he'll be ready for the game against Christian Day School," Perez said.

He also has a transfer student from Sweden playing on the team this year, giving Perez 27 players on his squad.

Assistant Coach Craig Dobson will be coordinating the offense at the varsity level and Pete Walker is coaching the defense for varsity with Mike Underwood in charge of special teams and Dick Schmidt in charge of the Junior Varsity team.

The team is expecting Patrick Whitehead to lead their ground attack and Ryan Mann and Brian Harrell to anchor their special teams unit.

In addition, the team is counting on senior offensive linemen Kirby Norman and Michael Gilliam, linebacker Billy McKinstry, guard Doug Corbin, and special teams players Donnie Moss and B.G. Weeks.
